Obituary

Lena A. Berg | Visit Guest Book

LENA A. BERG Lena ("Lee") A. Berg, 100, died March 30, 2010 in Stuart, Florida. She was born in Queens, New York, where she lived for over 60 years before relocating to Florida. Lee was predeceased by her late husband, Morris, to whom she was married for 68 years, and by her children, Diane and Henry. She is survived by three grandchildren and two great grandchildre n. Lee was a teacher, homemaker, and avid volunteer for causes including Hadassah and typing Braille books. She had a great love of learning, which she indulged traveling the world with Morris during their golden years. She stayed healthy playing golf and exercising regularly in the pool. A private funeral was held at Mt. Ararat Cemetery in New York. Paid Obituary

Published in the TC Palm on April 9, 2010